

The Limit (Joseph)

Aryn Michelle Calhoun 2019

Key Gm, 4/4 bpm 116

Gm

Down in a hole, down in the dark, how did this happen?

Fallen from grace, feeling betrayed, stripped and helpless

N.C.

(bass: Eb Db C Bb, Bb C D C)

I saw visions of my life where everything would work out

But it's hard to keeping on dreaming when I am so alone now

Gm

I am a stranger, I am a slave in a hard place

Cm

No looking back, there's no escape, just the next step

Eb Cm7

I get tangled up in trouble trying to do the right thing

Eb Cm7

Speaking up for my convictions has led to my pain, my chains

Eb F Gm7

Everyday I'm pushed to the limit

Eb F Gm7

Waiting patiently for deliverance

Eb F Gm Cm

But ain't no one on earth gonna do me, do me like they should

Gm

But I know my God is good

Gm

People come in, people come out, out of the story

Get what they want, then they move on without any warning

Eb Cm7

If I had a grain of sand for every promise they've made

Eb Cm7

I'd be sinking in a desert full of all my heartache

Hands on the bars, knees on the floor, head feeling heavy

Make no mistake, I'm keeping the faith, I will be ready

Eb Cm7

'Cause days and weeks and months and years could pass me all by

Eb Cm7

But my hope is in the only one whose saving my life, in time

Eb F Gm7

Everyday I'm pushed to the limit

Eb F Gm7

Waiting patiently for deliverance

Eb F Gm Cm

But ain't no one on earth gonna do me, do me like they should

Gm

But I know my God is good

Gm

Maybe my whole life's been building up to this

My whole life's been building, building

My whole life's been building up to this

My whole life's been building, building

Eb F Gm7 Eb F Gm7

Everyday, everyday

Eb F Gm7 Cm

No one on earth's gonna do me like they should

CHORUS

Spoken:

No famine, no fear, no fire, no flood

No man, no beast can keep me from your love

No chains, no trials, betrayal or blood

No king or kingdom can keep me from you

CHORUS/TAG (Gm)

VERSE

Down in a hole, down in the dark, how did this happen?
Fallen from grace, feeling betrayed, stripped and helpless
I saw visions of my life where everything would work out
But it's hard to keeping on dreaming when I am so alone now

I am a stranger, I am a slave in a hard place
No looking back, there's no escape, just the next step
I get tangled up in trouble trying to do the right thing
Speaking up for my convictions has led to my chains

CHORUS

Everyday I'm pushed to the limit
Waiting patiently for deliverance
But ain't no one on earth gonna do me, do me like they should
But I know my God is good

VERSE

People come in, people come out, out of the story
Get what they want, then they move on without any warning
If I had a grain of sand for every promise they've made
I'd be sinking in a desert full of all my heartache

Hands on the bars, knees on the floor, head feeling heavy
Make no mistake, I'm keeping the faith, I will be ready
'Cause days and weeks and months and years could pass me all by
But my hope is in the only one whose saving my life

*No famine, no fear, no fire, no flood
No man, no beast can keep me from your love
No chains, no trials, betrayal or blood
No king or kingdom can keep me from you*
